(Designation) District Judge, Bellary.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Finance Department

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith an application from Lingamma widow of K.Rangayya late process server of the District Court, Bellary for the grant of a compassionate gratuity under G.O.No.120 Finance(Pension) Department dated 22-3-1932.

A The petitioner's husband K.Rangayya was a process serve on Rs.14/- per mensem and had put in a total service of 14 years, 3 months and 6 days up to 30-9-1934. He died at Bellary on 30-9-1934. He has left behind him his wife and her parents are too poor to help her.

C 2 daughters aged 10 and 7 years and a minor son aged 5 years

The Tahsildar of Bellary reports that the petitioner's husband owned a house in Bellary valued at Rs.4000/- and it has been mortgaged for Rs.300/- and he has debts to the extent of Rs.500/-, that the said house was sold and the amount taken by the creditors and there is nothing for her to live upon. He could not make any provision for the family as he was getting a low salary.

In the circumstances reported I consider that the case of the petitioner deserves consideration and I recommend the grant of Rs.150/- as compassionate gratuity. Payment may be made at the Bellary treasury. The service register of the process server and the record of enquiry by the Revenue officials are herewith submitted. The particulars of punishment awarded to him are noted in the service register.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Judge.

The District and Sessions Judge Bellary.

Bellary.

Honoured Sir,

I, Lingamma widow of K. Rangiah, late Process server of the District Court, Bellary beg to bring the following few lines for your honour's kind consideration and favourable orders:-

My husband late Rangiah was entertained in the Judicial Department in June 1920 as Process server on Rs.14/ per mensem. He died suddenly on account of fever on 30-9-1934. He had put in a total service of 14 years and odd in the Department. He left behind him myself, and a son aged 8 years and two daughters aged about 10 and 7 years. He had incurred debts to the extent of Rs.900/. He owned a house in Bellary Town worth about Rs.400 but it has been mortgaged for Rs.300. There is nothing for me and my children to live upon as he has not saved anything since he was drawing a low salary of Rs.14/ per mensem.

I am in need of help from the hands of the Government There is nobody to protect me and my children. I therefore request your honour to kindly recommend me to Government for the grant of Compassionate Gratuity and the amount may be ordered to be paid to me at Bellary Treasury.

I beg to remain,
Honoured Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Dated 22nd October 1934. applicant.
